

Indian Oil Corporation Limited provides ₹20 lakh for aids & appliances for disabled (Assessment Camp held on 17-03-2018)

J&K Samaj Kalyan Kendra in association with Artificial Limb Manufacturing Corporation of India(ALIMCO ,Kanpur) and Indian Oil Corporation Limited conducted an Assessment Camp for Divyangs (Handicapped) under the Corporate Social Responsibility programme of IOCL on 17th March,2018 at Deaf & Dumb School, ,Jammu.

It was opened by Mr. S. S Wazir former ADGP and President of CGPWA, Jammu. Rajeev Ranjan, D.C Jammu, Veerji Hangloo, Director Social Welfare and Vikas Sharma, District Social Welfare Officer and President and members of J&K Samaj Kalyan Kendra , Jeevan Sandesh Trust & COPCO were present. Ajay Kumar Wazir, Chief Divisional Manager, IOCL and Ashok Kumar Sahu, Officer PO, ALIMCO, Mohali were present at the camp.

Out of 295 of disabled persons who attended the Camp, 249 were identified and registered for different types of Aids & Appliances which will be given at another Camp on 27th March, 2018.The IOCL has provided Rs. 20 lakh for these aids and gadgets.

Executive Committee Members of Samaj Kalyan Kendra posing with Mr. Ashok Kumar Sahu, (ALMICO) during Assessment Camp..

View of disabled persons along with guardians attending the Assessment Camp